MAINE BEACHES VACATION
IS YOURS FOR THE MAKING

Fill your days with wide smiles and the joyful music of laughter and tumbling surf. Choose between a pile of golden fried clams or a freshly steamed Maine lobster. Thrill to world-class recreation, attractions, and entertainment.

When you toss in the world’s most photographed lighthouse, miles and miles of shopping, and hundreds of welcoming places to stay, made up right, just for you, there is no doubting why the Maine Beaches continue to be a top vacation destination.
Sure, you’ve come here for the beach, but any visit to the York area requires a trip to see the world-famous and absolutely picture-perfect Nubble Light, officially called the Cape Neddick Light Station. Who would pass up the chance to see one of the most photographed lighthouses?

Make the easy climb (692 ft.) to the peak of Mt. Agamenticus for the best vantage point to see the entire York region—including our four sandy beaches. Look east for the Boon Island Light or west to spot Mt. Washington in the distance.

Back at sea level, if you are looking to shop, take time out from the sun and sand to explore the many factory outlet stores along Kittery’s US Route 1.

History comes to life at our many historic properties and museums. The Museums of Old York collection—nine buildings at last count—includes rugged barns, salty taverns, stately residences, and the fascinating Old York Gaol (jail). In South Berwick, visit the Old Counting House or the Sarah Orne Jewett House right in town.

In Kittery, discover Fort McClary, a Revolutionary War fort, only a short distance from where the sloop USS Ranger, under the command of the greatly admired John Paul Jones, was built and launched. Take in the breadth of our nautical history at the Kittery Historical Naval Museum and learn how our 200-year-old shipyard has impacted the development of the region. Head inland to the 250-acre Vaughan Woods State Park and Hamilton House—an ideal place to put in for a day of recreational paddling along the Salmon Falls River.

In the York region, finding accommodations is limited only by your imagination. Rent beachside cottages or camp out under the stars, stay in a warm and welcoming B&B, or kick back at a motel or hotel just steps from the beach.

Visitors looking to feast on Maine’s famous freshly caught lobster and other seafood will have no end to a selection of tasty restaurants that will satisfy anyone’s dining desires.

As a summer family weekend getaway, picturesque wedding destination, or romance-filled retreat, our long sandy beaches, breathtaking views, easy access to recreational pursuits, and extensive shopping and dining have something for all who visit the York area.

For more information or to plan your next York area getaway, contact the York Region Chamber of Commerce at (207) 363-4422 or visit us at GatewaytoMaine.org.
Ogunquit is the perfect Maine port of call.

The village of Ogunquit presents the Nautical Life. Visitors are invited to enjoy our quintessential Maine beachside village and its sandy front row seat on the magnificent Atlantic Ocean. No matter what it is you want to do or experience, you can walk to it in Ogunquit. From surfing, sailing, or fishing to swimming, kayaking, or SUP—the choice is yours. You can even take time to simply relax by the sea watching the waves roll in or survey the daily catch being hauled in by our fishermen at the town dock in Perkins Cove.

When you come, plan on spending at least a few days here to be certain that you will be able to enjoy all there is to do and see. Unpack once and enjoy your entire vacation from right here. Ideally located, Ogunquit feels like it is in the middle of it all in the Maine Beaches, a perfect homeport for your vacation. Our innkeepers and hoteliers will happily help you plan your entire Maine beach vacation, from daily activities and shopping trips to some of Maine’s finest nightly entertainment. And who could forget dining out on what is arguably the world’s best lobster or on today’s catch prepared to perfection?

From Ogunquit you can breeze back and forth into other Maine beach towns with ease or even take adventures further afield if you like, knowing that your GPS or smartphone will quickly guide you home to your cozy Ogunquit room each night. With so many adventures and a central location, Ogunquit is the perfect Maine port of call.

From a tasty beachside treat to the finest in white tablecloth dining, it’s all yours in Ogunquit. Select from some of the sweetest little B&Bs and inns or relax in style at Maine’s grand hotels and resorts. Without question, Ogunquit will meet the dining and lodging needs of even the most selective guests.

During the day we also offer biking and walking trails—including the spectacular views from along The Marginal Way. Shopping, antiquing, browsing, or just taking time relaxing—the choice is all yours. At night, our village is just walking distance to galleries, live theater, music, and nightlife. When you arrive be sure to pick up a copy of This Week in Ogunquit at your hotel for the most up-to-date schedule of things happening in and around town.

For more information or to plan your next Ogunquit getaway, contact the Ogunquit Chamber of Commerce at (207) 646-2939 or visit us at Ogunquit.org.
With miles of continuous sandy beaches, an abundance of outdoor activities and friendly folks, Wells continues its longstanding tradition as one of the finest family vacation spots anywhere. Families return year after year because Wells is a wonderfully friendly, convenient locale with miles of smooth beaches with no close comparison.

Wells Main Beach offers over 1.5 miles of continuous sand, dunes, tidal pools, and jetties surrounding the opening to Wells Harbor. Wells Harbor offers launching areas for boats on trailers, kayaks, and canoes. Wells Harbor Community Park is home to a gazebo for summertime performances and multiple other amenities, including a playground and observation deck.

Those who stay here are familiar with the myriad dining options as well as one of the widest arrays of lodging in all of the Maine Beaches—from beach-front cottages and condominiums to inns, guesthouses, and B&Bs and an excellent collection of hotels and motels. A dozen or more campgrounds offer services ranging from simple tenting sites to full-service recreational vehicle sites.

While other beach communities offer more mainstream retail and shopping, Wells delivers the vintage advantage—a broad collection of antique malls and independent dealers that have helped make Wells the Antiques Capital of Maine.

Wells is home to the internationally recognized Rachel Carson National Wildlife Refuge. The universally accessible Carson Trail offers a one-mile loop through a pine woods with tidal saltmarsh views. We also invite visitors to the Wells Estuarine Research Reserve at Laudholm, a breathtaking natural attraction with trails, estuary kayak tours, kid-centered programming (including camps), interpretive tours, and special events like musical performances.

The Town of Wells Wildlife Commons is located on the quieter side of our wonderful town, sharing diverse southern Maine landscapes like trout streams, tall forests, and cascading waterfalls. Come enjoy the serenity of hiking, nature photography, or the simple joy of a woodland picnic.

The Wells Regional Transportation Center is home to the Amtrak Downeaster passenger train with five daily departures from Boston North Station, as well as Greyhound Bus Service. The center is served by taxis and an in-season trolley service.

For more information or to plan your next Wells getaway, contact the Wells Chamber of Commerce at (207) 646-2451 or visit us at WellsChamber.org.
SANFORD

Just minutes from the scenic beaches of southern Maine, Sanford is a perfect day-trip destination. The Sanford region offers ample opportunities for outdoor fun: access to freshwater lakes, ponds, and rivers for fishing, swimming, kayaking, and waterskiing; 21 miles of beautiful recreational hiking and biking trails; and the Sanford Lagoons—one of York County Audubon’s premier birding sites, with over 225 species of wild birds recorded throughout the year.

Sanford Seacoast Regional Airport offers spectacular sightseeing flights that let you see Maine’s famous coast from a whole new perspective—and everyone gets a window seat, so bring your camera for vacation photos that will wow friends and family back home.

Sanford’s pick-your-own farms are a great way for the whole family to get out and get hands-on with their food, take a hay ride or meet some friendly farm animals. Seasonal offerings include strawberries, blueberries, apples, and much more. The Sanford Farmers Market offers fresh produce and local crafts, and Sanford’s three homemade ice creameries are not to be missed!

Sanford is a tight-knit hometown community that loves to share its traditions. The Sanford Mainers, members of the New England Collegiate Baseball League, play in beautiful, historic Goodall Park, where Babe Ruth hit his final home run as a member of the Boston Red Sox. The Sanford-Springvale Historical Society showcases the city’s proud history and offers visitors the opportunity to learn about the historic and cultural impact of the textile industry.

Today, Sanford’s former textile mills house a variety of businesses, including an award-winning restaurant, a popular cross-fit gym, and a salon and day spa. Across the street, Gateway Park is the perfect spot to watch Fourth of July fireworks over Number One Pond. Sanford’s Downtown offers everything from locally created arts and crafts, to unique cards and gifts, to freshly baked donuts and sweet treats.

Sanford’s village of Springvale is home to Nasson Little Theatre, where you can enjoy home-grown productions of Broadway musicals, original theatrical pieces, or experience a murder mystery dinner. With so much to offer away from the hustle and bustle of the coast, Sanford is a perfect destination where you can get off the beaten path and experience an authentic slice of Maine.

For more information or to plan your next Sanford-Springvale area getaway, contact the Sanford Regional Economic Growth Council at (207) 324-9155 or visit us at SanfordGrowth.com.
The Kennebunks

Come to the Kennebunks—Kennebunk, Kennebunkport, and Arundel—and spend your days lounging on beautiful beaches and nights dining in our award-winning restaurants. Or visit one of our historical treasures, like White Columns, the Brick Store Museum, or the Seashore Trolley Museum, then grab some fried clams or the best lobster roll you’ve ever tasted at one of our casual eateries.

Shop in our unique, independently owned stores, surf, take a boat tour, climb on a stand-up paddle board, or try your hand at deep-sea fishing, and then relax in a range of accommodations, from 5-star hotels and elegant B&Bs to homey inns.

Filled with a deep sense of history, from the rows of sea captains’ homes to our vibrant museums, yet having a cutting-edge dining scene and upscale resorts, the Kennebunks are a modern escape with timeless appeal.

Kennebunk boasts three beautiful beaches—Gooch’s, Middle, and Mother’s. These long, wide, sandy beaches are the perfect place to walk, sun yourself, play in the surf, look for sand dollars, or just enjoy the sight of the waves rolling into shore.

In Kennebunkport the three miles of Goose Rocks Beach is a favorite with walkers and the sand pail set. Colony Beach is much appreciated by those who love to scramble on its rocks and watch the surf dash the shore.

You can also Vacation Like a President here, by taking in some of the sights the Bushes love best, including their beloved Walker’s Point, the Bush family compound (best glimpsed from a parking area on Ocean Avenue), Ganny’s Garden on the Village Green, St. Ann’s Church, Anchor to Windward and, of course, the First Families Museum at White Columns.

Both Kennebunk and Arundel have entrances to the Eastern Trail—popular with those seeking to stretch their legs, no matter the season.

The Kennebunks are a year-round destination, featuring spectacular fall foliage, the nationally known Christmas Prelude (named the No. 2 Christmas event in America by HGTV!), the Paint the Town Red celebration in February, and our Launch! A Maritime Festival returning June 16–18 this year.

For generations, people have made the Kennebunks their favorite Maine destination. Isn’t it time you discovered all we have to offer?

For more information or to plan your next Kennebunks getaway, contact the Kennebunk-Kennebunkport-Arundel Chamber of Commerce at (207) 967-0857 or visit us at GoKennebunks.com.
Welcome to Biddeford+Saco, a true Vacationland spot offering miles of white sandy beaches and countless outdoor activities. Here you can enjoy biking, boating, hiking, kayaking, fishing, golfing, and abundant cultural activities.

To start with, we encourage you to visit the beautiful and unique Ferry Beach State Park during your stay. We are also home to a pair of the most fun family amusement and water parks in the Northeast: Funtown Splashtown USA is the largest amusement and water park in the state, and Aquaboggan Water Park has a wave pool of massive proportions. Biddeford-Saco also offer Maine’s only IMAX movie theater, a classic drive-in theater, and a bowling alley.

A walk along our streets will give visitors the chance to take in the historical significance of our community, a feeling being preserved in the architecture on our main streets, and in the homes and rows of historical brick factory buildings that line the Saco River separating our towns. Visit our museums, historical society, and the City Theater—considered one of the most acoustically perfect in all of Maine.

Be sure to include a visit to our specialty shops featuring everything from fine foods to home décor. The Shops at Biddeford Crossing and Saco Shopping Plaza feature your favorite larger retail chains, groceries, and a wonderful bookstore.

When it comes time to eat, our restaurants are second to none. Our clean, comfortable, and surprisingly affordable accommodations will make your stay all that much more pleasant.

Biddeford beaches include Biddeford Pool—a large tidal pool with a two-mile stretch of sandy beach. Fortunes Rocks boasts a wall of rock then sandy beach and great surf. Hills Beach has nearly 500 yards of sand. In Saco, Kinney Shores and Bay View are welcoming, and family-friendly; Camp Ellis and Ferry Beach mark the southern tip of a seven-mile stretch of beaches. Looking for something serene? Try paddling or taking a spectacular cruise on the Saco River or ocean kayaking, boating, or sailing in Saco Bay.

Our area is easily reached via the Maine Turnpike; US Route 1 or the Amtrak Downeaster, and by air into Biddeford Municipal Airport or via commercial flights into the Portland Jetport just up the road. We hope you choose to visit us and will return again and again once you see all Biddeford-Saco has to offer.

For more information or to plan your next Biddeford-Saco getaway, contact the Biddeford-Saco Chamber of Commerce & Industry at (207) 282-1567 or visit us at BiddefordSacoChamber.org.
Rich in history and rooted in tradition, Old Orchard Beach has been a sought-after travel destination for more than 250 years. Some of the same attractions that brought visitors to Old Orchard long ago continue to attract eager new travelers to our vibrant beach community today.

In addition to our beloved seven-mile stretch of glistening beach, visitors are still delighted and thrilled by Old Orchard’s oceanfront amusement park, which first opened in the early 1900s and is the only one of its kind in all of New England. Tourists also enjoy spending time at the pier, dining at restaurants boasting “the best” seafood dinners in Maine, and easy access to in-town shopping, refreshment stands, and candy shops. Many come for the weekly firework displays, concerts in Memorial Park and at the Pavilion, or to take a relaxing ride on the Amtrak Downeaster or local trolley.

There are a plethora of other fantastic reasons to pack your bags, make your lodging or camping reservations, and plug our lively seacoast town into your GPS or smartphone as a vacation destination: surfing, biking the Eastern Trail, golf, deep-sea fishing, taking in an exciting baseball game at The Ballpark, or taking part in the virtually endless list of annual events that should all be included in your travel plans.

For many who make the trip here, it is all about the beach, all seven miles of it. Some consider Old Orchard Beach to be the ideal summertime destination to relax and unwind. Many appreciate the white sand and the tumbling ocean surf, brightly colored umbrellas, sandcastles that line the shore, or simply the opportunity to capture our views at sunrise and sunset. With the iconic 500-foot pier in the center of it all, what more could vacationers ask from a beachfront destination?

If you are a visitor who has made an Old Orchard Beach vacation part of your family tradition, we are pleased to welcome you back and hope that you enjoy your stay! If you are considering exploring our area for the first time, you will soon find out why we are known as Maine’s Premier Family Beach Resort.

For more information or to plan your next Old Orchard Beach getaway, contact the Old Orchard Beach Chamber of Commerce at (207) 934-2500 or visit us at OldOrchardBeachMaine.com.

Virtually every stretch of Maine’s coast, even our own sandy shoreline, rests under the protection of these strong and steadfast structures. Long popular with visitors, the lighthouses of the Maine Beaches region can all be seen from shore, but we invite you to find ways to get closer and observe them by boat. Long after you return home, these majestic landmarks will inspire treasured memories of a uniquely Maine experience.

WHALEBACK LIGHTHOUSE Kittery Point

The Whaleback Lighthouse—built of gray granite blocks—is situated on the northeast side of the Portsmouth Harbor. When first constructed between 1829 and 1831, the lighthouse could not withstand the extreme weather conditions and had to be rebuilt. In 1872, the new tower was assembled in a style similar to the Eddystone Light in England. One of the best views of the light is from Fort Foster in Kittery Point.

GPS Coordinates: Latitude: 43.0586° Longitude: -70.6966°

BOON ISLAND LIGHTHOUSE York Beach

Set on an island just 14 feet above sea level and 6.5 miles east of York Harbor, Boon Island Light, at 133 feet tall, is New England’s tallest lighthouse. Its place in history is due, in part, to its perilous location, and to a gruesome shipwreck-filled past. This includes the infamous 1710 wreck of the Nottingham Galley, whose crew resorted to the grim practice of cannibalism for survival. The unmanned light, first erected in 1811 and later rebuilt of locally quarried ashlar granite, is now privately held.

GPS Coordinates: Latitude: 43.1214° Longitude: -70.4764°

CAPE NEDDICK “NUBBLE LIGHT” York

Cape Neddick is one of the most photographed lighthouses in the world. It stands high above the waves so that, while it is only 41 feet tall, its red light flashes 88 feet above the ocean. It is constructed of cast iron plates lined inside with brick. Built in 1879, it is referred to as “Nubble Light” because of its location on the “Nubble,” a rocky island off the eastern end of Cape Neddick. Owned and maintained by the town of York, it can be viewed from Sohier Park or via a lighthouse cruise; there is no public access to the island.

GPS Coordinates: Latitude: 43.165° Longitude: -70.5916°

GOAT ISLAND LIGHTHOUSE Cape Porpoise

Perched on the southern end of Goat Island, this lighthouse was originally built of split stone and stood 20 feet high. It was replaced in 1859 by the slightly larger painted brick tower that is visible today. Goat Island was the last of the Maine lighthouses to have a U.S. Coast Guard keeper. The light has been restored to its 1950s state by the Kennibunkport Conservation Trust and visitors can view the lighthouse from Cape Porpoise.

GPS Coordinates: Latitude: 43.3583° Longitude: -70.3291°

WOOD ISLAND LIGHTHOUSE Biddeford Pool

Authorized by President Thomas Jefferson in 1808, Wood Island Lighthouse is named for the uninhabited island it stands on at the mouth of the Saco River. Originally built of rubblestone, it has since been replaced with granite blocks. The lighthouse, with its white light beaming 71 feet above the ocean, can be seen from the East Point Audubon Sanctuary walking trail in Biddeford Pool. Summer tours by boat are also offered by the Friends of Wood Island Lighthouse, leaving from Vine’s Landing.

GPS Coordinates: Latitude: 43.4569° Longitude: -70.5940°

MAINE OPEN LIGHTHOUSE DAY

In 2017, Maine Open Lighthouse Day will be celebrated on Saturday, September 9. Each year this special day offers visitors to the Maine coast the opportunity to explore and learn more about our many shoreline guardians. During 2017 Open Lighthouse Day, these Maine Beaches area lighthouses will be available for a visit: Goat Island Lighthouse and Wood Island Lighthouse.
Some even relish the monumental task of surveying an unlimited collection of antique shops, markets, and malls up and down the many upscale and fashionable boutiques found in town. ARTS and CULTURE
Each of our coastal communities has a well-established local cultural scene overflowing with live performances of music, theater, and dance. Pair these with a collection of living history museums that share our storied coastal past and the many highly talented visual artists who call the Maine Beaches home, and you create an energy that defies description. Let the show begin!
FOOD AND DRINK
IN THE MAINE BEACHES

Jam-packed with wind-weathered lobster shacks and trendy brewpubs, the Maine Beaches has an eclectic mix of the state’s best diners (for breakfast or lunch or dinner), award-winning chefs, and fabulous restaurants. Specialty and grocery stores and local shops offer coffee or sandwiches or pastry or donuts. We even churned in our best ice cream stands.

If it’s tasty, it’s here in the Maine Beaches. So plan on being hungry, take good notes, and leave some room for pie.

GETTING MARRIED IN THE MAINE BEACHES

Once you select the Maine Beaches for your event, we’re here to make it all happen—with perfection. Choose from a first-rate collection of waterfront venues dedicated to making your day a success, regardless of the size of your party. You'll easily find the perfect caterer whether you wish to serve Maine fare like the iconic shore dinner, wedding classics like prime rib, or a more inventive chef’s menu. Beautiful blooms, the perfect cake, and just the right music and dancing will make it an affair to remember. Then, think of more than the day itself, to endless options for pre-wedding fun.

Outlet shopping, trips to in-town boutiques, an afternoon spent at an exquisite day spa, or a round of golf on any of our excellent courses will make your guests smile.

GETTING A MAINE MARRIAGE LICENSE:

• Residents must file intentions and obtain a license in their local municipal clerk’s office. Non-residents may obtain a license for use anywhere in Maine at any municipal clerk’s office.

• There is no waiting period. Maine requires no blood test, but the couple must possess ID.

• There is a $40 fee for obtaining a Maine wedding license.

CONVENTIONS & MEETINGS IN THE MAINE BEACHES

The Maine Beaches region has long offered an impressive setting and easy access to skilled professional services that make the job of the corporate event planner look easy. Choose from modern, well kept venues for your meetings and a distinctive collection of lodging options. Allow teams of skilled chefs and caterers to serve up tasty menus tailored to accommodate any and every budget. Then once all the meetings are done, let us show your group a more playful side of the Maine Beaches with diverse downtime activities. Explore endless miles of soft, sandy beaches or take a round (or two) of golf. Head out onto the water for a thrilling deep-sea fishing trip or serene sea-kayaking adventure. Spend an afternoon playing in world-famous amusement and waterparks and an evening at the theater. We are here to make your vision a reality. The Maine Beaches region can help make your retreat or convention the most effective ever. And with affordable and customizable packages, we can do it in a way that will meet any bottom line.
FAMILY TIME & FUN TIME
IN THE MAINE BEACHES

Sometimes you need to get off the beach—and not just to eat. Throughout the Maine Beaches you will easily find things to do for families and children of all ages come rain or shine. Spend an incredible day of fun at your local farm for some PYO berries, or let your captain lead the way on a scenic harbor or whale-watching cruise.

GET OUTSIDE and PLAY IN THE MAINE BEACHES

We're certain that if you're planning a trip to the Maine Beaches you already know how to have fun in "the great outdoors." This list will help you think outside the beach by putting the best of the best at your fingertips.

Hit the links for a round or two, choosing from over a dozen top-quality courses. Hike to the peak of Mt. Agamenticus, explore the spectacular views offered by the Marginal Way in Ogunquit, or take a serene walk through the diverse habitats spread across the Rachel Carson Wildlife Refuge. Hop aboard a bike and take a two-wheeled, out-of-the-ordinary sightseeing adventure (or just a hassle-free way to get to the beach).

When you are ready to get back in the water, do it in style with a rented sea kayak or SUP. You may even want to consider a deep-sea fishing charter for some on-the-water action. Or, maybe slow up the pace with a sunset cruise aboard a yacht. Nothing compares with the rewards of a day, afternoon, or even simply an hour spent outdoors in The Maine Beaches.

NEW ENGLAND’S MOST LUXURIOUS OCEANFRONT RESORT
Cliff House pairs the rugged majesty of coastal Maine with modern luxury, creating an idyllic oceanfront experience. Wander the wild blueberry fields or snowshoe alongside the briny sea. Inside, unwind into the comfort of coastal chic guestrooms—each with a striking ocean view. Maine farm & sea-to-table dining and elemental-inspired spa services further enrich your escape.

Waves Oceanfront Resort
On the Ocean...Old Orchard Beach, Maine

As close as you can get to Maine’s best beach. The Waves Oceanfront Resort is directly on Old Orchard Beach’s 7 mile long white sandy beach. Walk from your room onto the sand to swim, stroll in the surf, hunt for shells, or just relax and enjoy the view. All rooms include kitchenette, air-conditioning, CCTV and access to our beachfront pool and state-of-the-art fitness center. Many rooms offer spectacular ocean views, balconies and/or decks. For fun and excitement we are an easy walk to the famous Old Orchard Pier, a fixture on the beach since 1898. The Pier and amusement park are the centerpiece of downtown Old Orchard Beach for family fun.

More adventure is only a short drive away featuring several amusement parks, water parks, whale watch and lobster boat tours, deep-sea fishing excursions, golf courses, museums, shopping outlets, and many other coastal attractions.

Enjoy your Old Orchard Beach vacation as millions have for over 200 years! Call today to make your reservation for fun in the sun.
