MAINE LOBSTER

Lobster is practically synonymous with Maine — no visit to Vacationland is complete without the experience of eating a fresh Maine lobster (or two)! You can build an entire trip celebrating this delicious crustacean and its integral part in Maine culture.

Enjoy lobster on a simple roll from a shack or have it expertly prepared by one of Maine's award-winning chefs. Take in a lobster boat race or even go lobstering and catch your very own lobster with a Maine lobsterman.

Attend one of our many festivals that pay tribute to the great Maine lobster. If you come in December, Santa arrives in many coastal towns by lobster boat! Many of Maine's great hotels and B&Bs overlook harbors and bays where you can wake up to see the lobstermen heading out for the day. From the lobster Eggs Benedict to your butter-poached lobster in the evening — make your next trip to Maine all about lobster!

Lighthouses, scenic shore, luxury resorts and inns share stunning views with beachfront cottages and lobster shacks. Enjoy abundant recreation from swimming, surfing and sailing to kayaking, hiking, biking and golf. And washers, air lovers and seafood cannola sure are many reasons to return, year after year.

Signature Events

Rockland - August

Portland - October

Maine Lobster Chef of the Year Competition takes place at this event!

Rockland

Breathtaking views of coastal Maine, lobster panachés and a lobster roll for lunch! Rated by Outdoor Magazine as one of the top cycling events.

What is a Maine Lobster Roll? Go in search of the perfect Maine Lobster Roll!

Seamed, broiled, poached, grilled, stuffed, baked, chowder or blague... In Maine, you can have your lobster (or lobster) any way you can imagine, but perhaps the most popular is in a roll. While options vary on what makes the perfect Maine lobster roll, purists prefer fresh chunks of lobster meat stuffed in a grilled, split-top hotdog roll; no mayo or dressing, but perhaps with a light drizzle of melted butter. This down home, unpretentious delicacy can be found throughout the state in restaurants, lobster shacks, homeown diners and sandwich shops.

Elements of a Great Package

- Value for dollar paid – not necessarily savings but time, effort, etc
  - Creativity & uniqueness – don't just offer store brand vanilla experiences go for Ben & Jerry's Chunky Monkey!
  - Be complete, thoughtful, and personal.
Take your time crafting the language.

Beware of ...

- A Bed & Breakfast including breakfast is not earth shattering news! Nor a package.
  - Offering the same package year-round gets stale – change them up seasonally!
  - Bundling the same experience as everyone else in your community will not set you apart!
  - A pricing opportunity/special isn't the same as your rack rates with a title!

"Wild Moosehead By Ear" Birding Tour (Evergreen Lodge at Moosehead, Moosehead)

This unique tour gets a major upgrade in 2012. It's the perfect place & time for birding by ear. It's easier to remember bird vocalizations when you can actually watch them sing. Participants will receive audio materials prior to the tour to make it easier to learn the songs in the field. You'll spend two days in the field dodging moose and looking for over 20 species of warblers. Difficult target birds include Spruce Grouse, Black-backed Woodpecker, Gray Jay, Boreal Chickadee and Lincoln's Sparrow. This tour includes two night's lodging, all meals from Saturday morning thru Sunday afternoon, two full days of guided birding into many of the area's secret hot spots, led by the founder of the Maine Birding Trail, Bob Duchesne, and local transportation by van. The tour begins at the lodge with a Friday evening social and birding-by-ear workshop. It ends Sunday afternoon around 5 PM. The birding tour price is $140/person plus room cost. Rooms and rates vary. You can go to the Evergreen Lodge's website to view guest rooms and choose the room that best meets your needs. To reserve your tour and lodging call 1-888-624-3993 (toll-free in USA). For information about the itinerary, conditions and target birds, contact the guide, Bob Duchesne, at duchesne@midmaine.com or 207-827-3782.

Arggggh, Mateys! Join Us For A Pirate Sailing Adventure! (Schooner Isaac H. Evans)

Arggggh, Mateys! This trip you'll sail away into the legendary world of friendly swashbucklers, spirited pirates, scallywags, and undesirables. But beware...you may be called upon to defend the ship by fighting with swords, firing the cannon, or shooting the sling-shot with our environmentally-friendly ammo (marshmallows and bread balls). Perhaps you'll be made to walk the plank. Discover treasure and take your share of the loot. Scarf down worm sandwiches and pirate punch but...bring your own grog. Pirate costumes, a scavenger hunt, pirate booty, and lots of fun for all ages! It won't be "all pirate, all the time" but you can fulfill your fantasy to act like a pirate as much or as little as you like. "Yo, ho, yo ho, it's the pirate's life for me!"

Windjamming is the perfect combination of adventure and relaxation. Each day you can help the crew as we set our course based on the wind and tides or just relax and enjoy islands, lighthouses, wildlife, new friends, and great food. You'll indulge in three hearty meals a day, one of which will be a traditional lobster bake on the beach of one of Maine's pristine islands. Each evening we will anchor in a quiet cove or peaceful harbor where you can stargaze from the deck or go exploring in one of our rowboats. When you wake in the morning to the smell of the wood stove and you wander the deck with your first mug of hot coffee, you'll think you've stepped back in time to an era when hundreds of schooners graced the waters of Maine.
